Today we can present to our readers the third 2013 issue of Religions & Christianity in Today's China (中国宗教评论).

As in previous issues, it includes the regular series of News Updates which give an insight into recent events and general trends with regard to religions and especially Christianity in today's China.

The "2012 Statistical Update on Religions and Churches in the People's Republic of China and in Taiwan" by Katharina Wenzel-Teuber as in the last years describes the various numerically measurable developments in the field of religions in China.

Religions & Christianity in Today's China is freely available on the website of the China-Zentrum, www.china-zentrum.de. Additionally, readers who subscribe to Religions & Christianity in Today's China will regularly receive e-mail updates providing web links to the contents of each newly published issue.

The China-Zentrum is a non-profit organization. For the publication of Religions & Christianity in Today's China we are dependent on the generosity of our friends and readers. In order to help us cover inevitable costs, we would be very grateful if you could consider sending in a voluntary contribution.
